1. Prologue

Houjou Akito was a very intelligent child. At the age of one he could understand the spoken language, at the age of two he was able to read and being a genius he perfectly understood the mechanism behind stock trading at the age of three.

His parents saw the talent in their son. They gave him various books about stock trading and forced him into it. The results were huge amounts of money in only two years of time. But this sudden increase in profits also attracted a certain criminal organization. They kidnapped Akito, killed his parents and forced him to spend his life in imprisonment.

His life was all about increasing the profits of the organization. If the profits were good, his meals became more luxurious, he got various items of entertainment like novels or comics and was allowed to exercise in the garden. However if the profits decreased at the end of the month he was beaten to a pulp and threatened to be killed.

Due to his amazing talent and his luck, Akito grew up without a big failure and became an indifferent and handsome boy at the age of 14. One fateful day the leader of the organization brought his daughter with him. It was love at first sight. His money making results were good as always and due to that he was allowed to go outside under supervision.

He thought nothing at all of the leader's daughter but was unable to refuse her requests and had to spend a lot of time with her. This did not go unnoticed and made a henchman of the leader jealous. He pretended to be the daughter and called Akito outside. There he tortured and eventually killed the young boy.

In his last moments Akito was thinking: Was that all? Was this everything my life had to offer? He wanted nothing else but to relive it all again... only this time with a free will... where no one would force him into anything...

In the very last moment of his old life – when the darkness started to surround him – a goddess appeared right in front of his eyes. His old life had ended but this... This was the beginning of a whole new life.

2. Encounter with a goddess.

Akito was speechless. He thought that he'd die now but instead he saw a blond, blue eyed beauty right in front of his eyes. She was smiling at him and he felt that he was surrounded by pure white walls. 「Where the hell am I? 」was all he could think of.

「It is a pleasure meeting you, Akito. I am what you would call a goddess. Hear what I have to say for it is very important. 」(Goddess)

Is she weird? A goddess? She must be out of her mind... The face of the beautiful smiling woman started to look angry for a moment.

「Weird!? Me?! Even though you might not understand your current situation, you will die if your judgment is too slow. Or perhaps I should rephrase it? Your life is over the moment you incur my wrath. 」(Goddess)

Akito was at a loss for words again. Could she be a mind reader? Does what she said mean that I'm not dead yet? My body feels fine...

「You seem to start getting the hang of it. Yes it's correct, I can read minds and no, you are not dead yet. To give you a better explanation: I called you into my spiritual world one short moment before you died. On the site of the murder now lies but a simple copy of your body. You however will now go to world that I take care of.」(Goddess)

「So, I can't go back to my world because I'm supposed to be dead and now I shall restart my life with this current body in your world?」(Akito)

「That is correct. You see, my world has a little demon problem. Their numbers increase too much and I fear that mankind will go extinct if I don't intervene.

That's where you come in. You seem not to have noticed in your former prison life but you have enormous talent. It'll be perfect for this job. So, I want you to fight back the demons and help increase the human forces. 」(Goddess)

It's hard to understand everything but Akito is starting to organize it all in his head.

「Is a demon something like a creature out of these fantasy books? Like a goblin or a slime? No offense, but no matter how I look at it I don't think it's possible for a person from a different world to bring all humans together and help them. I can't even speak the language, I don't know anybody in that world. And I'm pretty sure I'll die as soon as I encounter my first demon...」(Akito)

「What you're thinking about demons is correct. Please work hard and do your best. With your ability and talent I expect you will learn the language in 3 hours at most. You see, in my world there are jobs that you can level up, magic weapons that will help you to fight the demons. Your physical performance and your attributes will go up as long as you have your talent. However without knowledge you won't stand a chance. Here, take this book.」(Goddess)

It's a [Book of Knowledge]? But the pages are all empty! Nothing but white paper... Akito wonders what he should do with it.

「With this book it will be easily possible for you to acquire all the knowledge that you want from god. It's restricted to the elementary level but nevertheless please use it to learn the language and other basic things. I have enchanted it so that only you can see and touch it. Now, please do your best!」(Goddess)

「Ah, just one —」(Akito)

Akitos view turned dark again and the next thing he saw after a brief moment... was... a flower garden?

3. The first battle

Everything in front of Akito is filled with flowers. The whole scenery... It's just so beautiful and breathtaking. How can this not be heaven with all of these colorful flowers blooming? This was a sight that Akito never got to see in his previous life. His mind seemed to stop working for what seemed like an eternity – 5 minutes – before he realized that he had to do something about his situation. I need to think about what to do next or I will certainly die in this strange world. Maybe I should take a look at the [Book of Knowledge] that I got from the goddess.

「Okay, first things first: I need to find out where I am and where the nearest city is located. Hopefully I can learn the language of this world there. 」(Akito)

He thought aloud to focus on the things he needs to do in the future. Okay, I seem to be in the herb district of the eastern woodlands in the south of Gordius Kingdom. About 5 kilometers from here seems to be a village called Rand. I don't have any money so I should probably collect some herbs along the way and bring them to the village. I should sit down on of these giant rocks and learn about the language.

With the help of his book Akito starts to study the language. It doesn't seem hard to understand. Except for some minor differences it's almost like English. No Idea if my pronunciation can be understood in the village but I guess it can't be helped. Let's go.

He climbs off his rock and looks around. About half a kilometer away from him he sees a small – about a meter high? – humanoid creature coming out of the forest.

「Is that a goblin? I don't have any weapon. Even if it looks weak I could die to it.」 (Akito)

He felt a cold sweat running down his body. This creature doesn't seem to notice me yet. But still, I'm in a bad position. I should hide behind the rock and take a look at my book.

The book confirmed his fears. It was a goblin! He held his breath and prayed to god but it did not help. The goblin is slowly coming closer... If I stay here I'll be found... Isn't there anything nearby that I could use as a weapon? Maybe... Yeah, I could use this stone the size of my fist. I'll hit you with this little fellow! And kill you!

A method to fight... A weak spot... How should he attack with this? It'll probably be better if I jump from the top of the rock. After all a surprise attack to the head is more likely to win the fight... right?

Akito climbs onto the rock and holds his breath. He can feel a bit of despair rising up in him but that isn't even why he does not want to breathe right now. He can smell the awful stench from the goblin below him... He holds his nose and waits for the right timing to strike.

NOW!

As Akito counted down he jumped of the rock and with all of his might smashed the stone against the head of the goblin.

「YES! Hit him! 」(Akito)

Akito could hear the sound of bones breaking. The goblin fell down to the floor but he was still twitching. Akito hit him again with the rock to put him out of his misery. And just after he killed this creature he heard a loud voice in his head...

Job acquired: 《Warrior》

《Warrior》- Joblevel increased by 1.

SPP +1

Skill《Strong Punch》is now Level 1

Skill《Fighting》is now Level 1

SPP +10%

「What on earth?!? 」(Akito)

He wasn't crazy. He heard a voice right inside his head talking about.. job levels and abilities? Was that the thing the goddess was talking about? Akito thought what other surprises the future might have in store for him now that he started his journey...

Chapter 4 – Arriving at the village

Akito decided use the【Book of Knowledge】. He wanted to know more about the things the voice in his head talked about.

“Job” seems to indicate a occupation. A job is acquired through battle, production, if one has enough talent or special situations. The time you need to acquire a job depends on your talent. A job of the battle series uses weapons to defeat enemys, jobs of the production series are manufacturing and the special-condition jobs are available under constant conditions. Your status rises whenever your Level goes up and for every 5 joblevel it is possible to acquire a better job through career change.

The skilllevel is rising coresponding to the equipment used. Whenever the level rises, your status enhanced by 10. It’s possible to gain special bonuses through skills.

The Status includes attack power ATK, defense DEF, vitality VIT, dexterity DEX, magic power INT, magical energy MEN (magical points), super power SPP (skill points), speed SPD and hitrate HIT.

With statusmagic it is possible to see the status, job and skill of a person.

I try to use the skill I just acquired.

「Strong Punch」(Akito)

I was able to to produce a “wushh” sound with the momentum of my thrusting fist. I wonder which is stronger: my fist or the stone. It sounds painful to hit it with bare hands, so I should better get a weapon. To get a weapon or food, I need money, and to obtain it I must think about a way to raise enough to live.

I looked for a popular herb described in the [Book of Knowledge] and collect it desperately. I used the jacket which I wore as a substitute for a bag, and after packing, begun to walk toward the final stage, the village.

I need to pass about 2 kilometers through the forest, but it will be hard to be seen by monster so I’m not really worried. While in the forest I try to not make much noise while walking. After two hours I have safely managed to get out of the forest.

With the sun at that position, are there only three more hours till dusk? I must hurry up to the village. After about one hour walking I arrived at the village. Here is a problem. Can I communicate without problems? With a throbbing heart I begin to talk to a village guard, hoping to not get arrested for being a suspicious person.

「Hello~, I'm a traveler. Where can I sell herbs at this village? And it would help me a lot, if you could tell me where I can find a place to stay and eat and how much it costs.」(Akito)

The village guard answered me with a dubious face.

「A young girl is traveling alone? That's very dangerous. A bit longer and you would've been attacked by a thief or a monster.」(Guard)

He thinks I'm female. Is my face so feminine? That's a shock.

「No, I'm visible male. You can see my manliness, can't you? Hahaha.」
(Akito)

I could do nothing but smile wryly.

「Oh, I'm sorry. You can sell your herbs at the second-hand shop. It's the third house at the side of the road. The fifth house from here is a small inn. You can't find anything better at a small village like this. You can get a meal there too. With two meals it would cost 2000 Poron.」(Guard)

「Thank you very much, I'll go there right now.」(Akito)

I promptly sold the herbs at the second-hand shop. For all I got 5000 Poron. It'll be possible to stay for two nights. Let's go to the inn right away.

「Hello~. Do you have a free room? For one male?」(Akito)

A good build middle-aged lady came out.

「Please come in. One night is 2000 Poron. It includes a meal at the evening and at the morning. If you want dinner, it'll take me a while. Do you want to go to your room first?」(Inn Lady)

「Oh, I would like to. I sleep lightly, so please wake me up by knocking.」

(Akito)

I payed the money promptly and got to my room. After locking the door I took a nap straight away. The sudden transition took to much toll on my mind. After resting a little, I have to think about everything.

「Good night.」(Akito)

Akito decided to take a nape while subduing the loneliness caused by the fact that he doesn't know anybody in this world.

Chapter 5

this is my first project and in short time i plan to add kami sumeragi yuusha no eiyuutan《Ryokou Tan》 knockknock,there is a sound of knock.

「 ye~s,thank's for alarm 」

I opened the key to the door.

「 I brought the meal,do you want to eat in the room 」

「 yes,I want to eat in the room,ah,can I get light for this room? 」

「 lamp, Because it would cut off oil after that a fee will be charged in about 2 hours. 」

「 understood,thank you 」

after receive a meal and a lamp, I start eating in the table. Dried meat and potato soup, Sour and hard black bread, It seems vegetable salad shriveled was seasoned with salt. Honestly it's not very tasty,but if I don't eat,it will be bad for my body.

「 what should I put first 」

Thinking while messing around with [knowledge of the book].first, You should learn the status magic to live. I look it immediately. It was easy.

「 Status Open! 」

Seems to do is just say that status open place your hand on your head. It seems anyone can use special magic if you have magic aptitude relationship once. I should examining more quickly. Character has been standing out in the location before away about 50 centimeters from the eye. This seems my status.

「 eh,what is this? 」

My tittle is Different world's genius,and my growth rate is 100 times is very tremendous. I wonder what skill should I take? If it so,it will be terrible balance breaker. blessings of the goddess is also amazing.there is also no freedom in this world if a know bad person with my friends growth 10 times. I can't see other people's status. If it seen, it will be trouble. I wonder about that.

I Examine in the [knowledge of the book]. Apparently status can be seen and apparently “appraisal” found in the skill retention. But it seems I can hide my tittle. I also want to hide other status if to grow at a high speed. Apparently “concealment” seems to hide your skill. “Concealment” is skill of “Ninja”,it seem I can get it if I fight with dagger. “Appraisal” is the skills of “indiscriminate reader”.I What to fight equipped with a book,as if I can hit with it.as expected I can’t.it looks like I can fight with skills using a special book.

First,tomorrow I must bought dagger for battle with goblin. I’m sure all right if Goblin and one animal tried fighting.

For the time being it seems there is no longer oil for the lamp,Let sleep for today.
